

Conditions of Purchase of 2022 Environmental Science (Thailand) Co., Ltd.

- 1 General
 - 1.1 These Conditions shall be an integral part of the purchase contract. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, or unless the parties enter into a separate written purchase contract, the following terms and conditions shall apply to the purchasing transaction of goods or services (the "Transaction"). Conflicting or deviating conditions of delivery stipulated by the Supplier or other reservation made by the Supplier shall not be deemed accepted unless the Purchaser has expressly accepted them in writing for a specific order.
 - 1.2 Other agreements, amendments or subsidiary agreements shall not be effective unless the Purchaser has given his written consent thereto.
- 2 Offer
 - 2.1 The Supplier's offer shall cover exactly the quantities and qualities specified in the Purchaser's inquiry. Any departure therefrom shall be expressly mentioned.
 - 2.2 The offer shall be submitted cost-free and without any obligation being imposed on the Purchaser.
- 3 Order
 - 3.1 Orders and alterations to orders shall be made in writing. In case of doubt, verbal agreement or arrangements discussed over the phone shall only be binding if confirmed in writing.
 - 3.2 Each order or alteration to an order shall be confirmed by the Supplier in writing and shall be treated separately in all correspondence.
 - 3.3 The following details shall be stated in all correspondence: the purchasing department, the complete order number, the date of the order and the Purchaser's reference.
- 4 Period for Delivery
 - 4.1 The period for delivery shall run from the date of the order. If the Supplier has reason to assume that he will not be able to meet, or meet in time, all or part of his contractual obligations, he shall inform the Purchaser thereof immediately, stating the reasons and the likely duration of the delay. If the Supplier fails to do this, he shall not be entitled to claim exemption from responsibility for the delay on the grounds of the hindrance.
- 5 Warranty, Liability and Notification of Defects
 - 5.1 The Supplier warrants the goods supplied by him to be free from defects which may reduce their value or affect their usability, to be in accordance with the conditions stipulated in the order, to have the warranted properties, to be in conformity with the generally accepted industrial standard of practice, and to conform to the most recent regulations and to the appropriate safety specifications and rules for the protection of workers and prevention of accidents. Should the delivered goods fail to meet any or all of these requirements, the Purchaser shall be free to request either a termination of the contract or a reduction in the purchase price or replacement of the defective item by a non-defective one or, if the Supplier has the necessary technical equipment, repair of the defect. This shall not apply to defects or damage caused by
 - (a) normal wear and tear
 - (b) inappropriate handling by the PurchaserThe Purchaser shall notify the Supplier of any defects in the delivered goods as soon as they are discovered in the regular course of business. The above provisions shall apply mutatis mutandis to services such as assembly, erection, maintenance, etc.
 - 5.2 Unless agreed otherwise, the warranty period shall be 1 year, starting from the time the goods are put into operation or used for the first time, but shall not exceed two years from the date of delivery.
 - 5.3 The Supplier's warranty shall also cover any items manufactured by subcontractors.
 - 5.4 If the Supplier is notified of a defect, the warranty period shall be extended by the time which elapses between such notification and the repair of the defect. If the item supplied by the Supplier is replaced in whole by a new one, the warranty period shall begin anew if the item is replaced in part: the warranty period shall begin anew for the new parts.
 - 5.5 Goods that sustain defects under the warranty shall remain at the Purchaser's disposal until replacements have been supplied, whereupon they shall become the property of the Supplier.
 - 5.6 In urgent cases, or if the Supplier defaults or fails in repairing a defect, the Purchaser may repair the defect himself at the Supplier's expense or avail himself of any of the other warranty rights mentioned in clause 5.1.

- 5.7 Acceptance of the Supplier's supplies and services by the Purchaser shall not affect the Supplier's obligations under the warranty.
- 5.8 The Supplier must notify any changes on the quality of product or services to Purchaser in writing. If the Supplier fails to perform this obligation, Purchaser reserves the right to reject such materials/products or services and shall have the right to claim from the Supplier any cost/damage arising out of such failure.
- 6 Tests
- If tests are specified for the goods to be supplied, the Supplier shall bear the costs of such tests, including his own personnel costs, but excluding the Purchaser's personnel costs.
- The Supplier shall inform the Purchaser not less than one week in advance of the date on which the goods will be ready for testing and shall agree with the Purchaser on a date for the tests. If the goods are not presented for testing on this date, the Purchaser's personnel costs shall be borne by the Supplier.
- If any defects are found in the goods which make it necessary to repeat the tests or conduct further tests, the Supplier shall pay all the personnel costs and other costs entailed. The Supplier shall also pay all the personnel costs and other costs incurred in connection with testing the materials used by him in executing the order.
- 7 Insurance
- 7.1 The transport insurance shall in all cases be taken out by the Purchaser.
- 7.2 The Supplier shall take out at his own expense adequate third party liability insurance to cover damage resulting from services rendered by or goods delivered by or property belonging to his personnel, or third parties commissioned by him.
- The Supplier shall, if so requested, submit to the Purchaser documents showing the sums insured per occurrence.
- 7.3 The procurement of special assembly/erection insurance in addition to the third party liability insurance mentioned in clause 7.2 shall in each case be subject to agreement between the Purchaser and Supplier.
- 7.4 Any machines, apparatus, etc., supplied to the Purchaser on loan will be insured by the Purchaser against the usual risks. Any further liability of the Purchaser for destruction of such machines, apparatus, etc., or damage thereto, shall be excluded, unless it has been caused willfully or through gross negligence on part of the Purchaser.
- 8 Shipping Requirements
- 8.1 On the day on which the goods are dispatched, the Supplier shall send the Purchaser a detailed dispatch note for each consignment separately from the goods and invoice. The goods shall be accompanied by a delivery note and packing slip. If the goods are sent by ship, the shipping papers and invoice shall state the name of the shipping company and of the ship. The Supplier shall choose the mode of transport most favorable and suitable for the Purchaser. The Supplier shall show in full the order reference number and point of unloading specified by the Purchaser in all dispatch notes, delivery notes, packing slips, bill of lading and invoices, on the outer packaging of the goods, and elsewhere if appropriate.
- 8.2 The Supplier shall always pack, mark and ship dangerous goods in compliance with the appropriate national/international regulations. The accompanying documents shall show not only the risk category but also any further particulars required by the appropriate transport regulations
- 8.3 The Supplier shall be liable for any damage caused by non-compliance with these provisions and shall pay any costs incurred thereby. He shall also be responsible for ensuring that these shipping requirements are complied with by subcontractors.
- 8.4 Any consignments of which the Purchaser is unable to take delivery because of non-compliance with these provisions shall be stored at the Supplier's expense and risk. The Purchaser shall have the right to ascertain the contents and condition of such consignments. Tools and erection equipment shall not be loaded together with goods.
9. Prices and Conditions
- Should the Supplier reduce his prices or grant better conditions between the placing of the order and delivery thereof, the prices and conditions effective at the date of delivery shall apply.
10. Invoice and Payment
- 10.1 The Supplier's invoices shall agree with the respective orders in their wording, order of items and prices. Any additional or deleted services or supplies shall be stated separately in the invoice.
- 10.2 Payment of verified invoices is due 60 days from the date Purchaser receives the invoice, unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order. Invoices must be submitted to vendorsTH@envu.com and must clearly reference the Purchase Order number. The payment period shall commence only after Purchaser has received both a valid invoice and the corresponding Products and/or Services. Purchaser has the right to set off its payable claims against the payable debts to the Supplier.

- 10.3 Payment shall not be deemed to constitute acceptance of conditions and prices. Documents describing special instructions from the Purchaser, shall remain the Purchaser's property and shall not be used for any other purpose, reproduced or made available to third parties by the Supplier. The Supplier shall, if so requested, surrender them and all copies and duplicates thereof, to the Purchaser without delay. The Purchaser reserves the industrial property rights to all documents he supplies to the Supplier.
11. The Supplier shall regard the inquiry and the order and all work in connection therewith as a trade secret and treat them accordingly as confidential. The Supplier shall be liable for any loss suffered by the Purchaser because he has failed to fulfill any or all of these obligations.
- 11.1 The Supplier shall provide the Purchaser with all documents needed for discussion of the goods or services to be supplied. Such discussion or other involvement of the Purchaser shall be exclusively within the Supplier's responsibility and shall not release the Supplier from any warranty or other obligations.
- 11.2 The Supplier shall supply to the Purchaser in good time at no cost to the Purchaser and without being specially requested to do so, all documents needed by the Purchaser for the use, erection, installation, processing, storage, operation, servicing, inspection, maintenance or repair of the goods supplied.
- 11.3 Whenever the Purchaser specifies standards or regulations, the latest version shall apply. The Supplier shall request the Purchaser to supply him with his works standards and regulations, in so far as they have not already been supplied.
12. Incidental Items
Moulds, models, tools, films, etc. that have been made by the Supplier to enable him to execute the order shall, on being paid for, become the property of the Purchaser, even if they remain in the Supplier's possession. The Supplier shall be obliged to hand them over to the Purchaser on request.
13. Assembly, Erection, Maintenance, Inspection Repairs. Etc.
- 13.1 If assembly, erection, maintenance, inspection, repairs, etc. are carried out in any of the Purchaser's factories, such work shall be subject to the safety and conduct regulations for contractors and their personnel working on the premises of the Purchaser or its subsidiaries. These regulations will be supplied at the start of the assembly or erection work, or they should be requested from the Purchaser's plant security department.
- 13.2 The Purchaser shall not be liable for any property of the Supplier or his personnel, which is brought onto the Purchaser's premises.
14. Patent Infringement
The Supplier shall be liable for any infringement of patents, licenses or protective rights of third parties that may result from the supply or use of the goods. Any license fees payable shall be borne by the Supplier.
15. Advertising Material
The Supplier shall not refer to his business connection with the Purchaser in any information or advertising material except with the Purchaser's prior written consent.
16. Supplier Code of Conduct:
The Supplier hereby acknowledges its full understanding and commitment that the Supplier shall strictly comply with all aspects of the applicable Code of Conduct and all substantially similar documents, which Provider may release from time to time. The current version of the Code of Conduct is posted on the following website: <https://www.envu.com/footer/procurement/code-of-conduct>
- 17.
18. Applicable Law, Interpretation of Provision, etc.
- 18.1 The present Conditions and the purchase contract shall be subject to Thai Law.
- 18.2 Customary trade terms shall be interpreted in accordance with the most recent incoterms.
19. Origin of Goods
The goods supplied must conform to the conditions of origin specified in the preferential agreements of the EEC, unless the order confirmation expressly states otherwise.
20. Place of Performance and Jurisdiction
Unless otherwise stipulated in the order, the place of performance shall be the point of delivery specified by the Purchaser. The place of Jurisdiction shall be Bangkok, Thailand.