

Bermudagrass mites and billbugs: Old pests with new solutions and greater savings

September 1 - December 4, 2026

Available in Florida, South Carolina and Texas

Bermudagrass mites and billbugs are rapidly becoming troublesome insect pests on southern golf courses. Combining Kontos® insecticide⁵ with Tetrino® insecticide and Triple Crown® insecticide offers targeted control with added broad-spectrum coverage for these emerging pests.

¹Kontos currently has a 24(c) special local need label for bermudagrass mites in Florida, Texas and South Carolina. Please see respective 24(c) for full details.

Best use practices

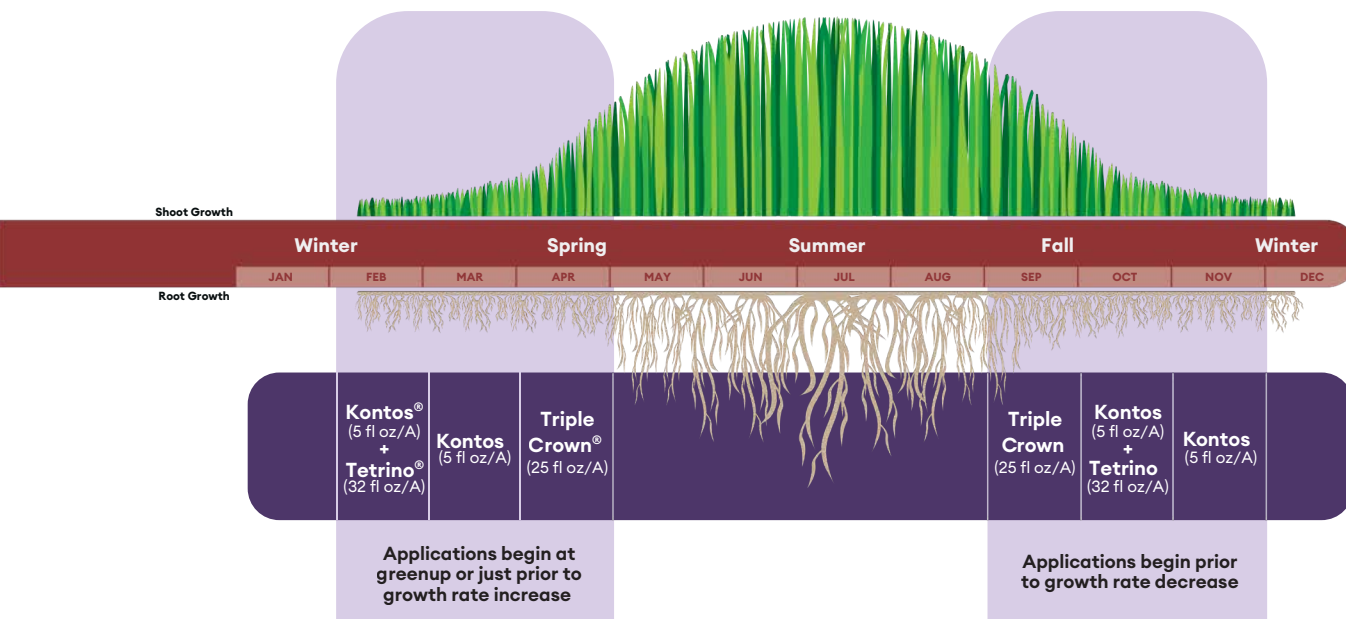

Solution	Rate	Annual Max Rate	Application Notes
 KONTOS [®]	5 oz/A	25 oz/A	Start treatments prior to establishment of high-pest population and reapply on an as needed basis. Apply when pests first appear or when damage is first noticed. For best results, apply mite insecticides with a surfactant and in a water volume of 2 gal/1,000 ft ² . A reapplication in 14 days may be needed if pressure is high.
 TETRINO [®]	32 oz/A	64 oz/A	Apply when adults are detected in early summer, prior to egg hatch. In southern regions, such as FL, multiple overlapping generations can occur and it is best to apply preventive billbug control before turf growth decreases in late summer/early fall. Irrigate or allow rainfall to move product into soil after application.
 TRIPLE CROWN [®] Golf	25 oz/A	50 oz/A	For greater broad-spectrum control, irrigation or rainfall should occur soon after treatment. For greater mite activity, include a surfactant and apply in a water volume of 2 gal/1,000 ft ² while delaying irrigation for 24 hours.

All Early Order Programs Agency purchases receive payment terms of June 4, 2027.

Timing applications

Bermudagrass mites and billbugs, while likely present year-round, express damage symptoms most often during periods of decreased turf growth. Late winter/early spring applications should be made at greenup or when symptoms appear. Fall applications should be made prior to dormancy or slowed growth.

Previously damaged turf will require active growth for recovery while applications are meant to reduce future symptom development.
